FROM WASHINGTON THIS P. M.

President Johnson Abandons His Opposition to Congress.

His Forthcoming Message Will Proclaim It.

Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc., Etc.

[SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EVENING TELEGRAPH.]

WASHINGTON, November 23.—The President has abandoned his opposition to Congress. He has decided to abide by the voice of the people. He will give his reasons for adopting this course in full in his forthcoming Message to Congress.

There was a protracted Cabinet meeting to-day, at which the whole matter was fully discussed; and it is reported that every member of the Cabinet endorsed the President's view. The radicals are preparing the programme for the impeachment, and it will be presented to the Republican Congressional caucus here next week.

The Philadelphia Surveyor.

It is said that there were fifteen or twenty persistent applicants for the office of Surveyor of the Port of Philadelphia, but the President has appointed J. S. Severns, who filed his bonds to-day, and will enter forthwith upon his official duties.

The Annual Official Reports.

The reports of all the Cabinet officers, with the exception of the Secretary of the Treasury, are in print.

Rumors About Mexico.

The city is full of rumors to-day regarding the extra Cabinet meeting yesterday, and it is generally believed that matters of unusual significance were under consideration. Information has been received that the French troops will remain in Mexico as an army of occupation for the present, without regard to the fate of Maximilian. Napoleon means, by hook or crook, to secure a guarantee for the payment of the French claim before his troops leave the country.

Public Printing Superintendent.

Hon. Thaddeus Stevens will, on the first day of the session, offer a bill making the office of Superintendent of Public Printing an elective one by Congress.

The Impeachment Question.

The idea of attempting the impeachment of the President has been abandoned, but a number of bills will be introduced during the first week of the session designed to limit his powers, especially in matters of appointments to office during recess.
